COURSE DESCRIPTION

The objective of this course is to provide participants with an introduction to ISO 14001:2015. This day consists of tutor led presentations and workshops. On completion of this course you will receive an SGS Certificate of Attendance.

AUDIENCE PROFILE

This course is suited to anyone working with Environmental Management System standards.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

On completion of this course delegates will be able to:

- Explain the purpose and intent of the new series of management systems standards
- Understand the application of the principles of environmental management
- Understand the differences between ISO 14001:2015 and ISO 14001:2004 standards
- Appreciate the timetable for moving to certification to the 2015 standard.

BACKGROUND

The publication of ISO 14001: 2015 in September 2015 is the final stage in the revision process of the standard. This version replaces ISO 14001: 2004, though there is a 3 year transition period.

ISO has identified the following emerging changes as a result of the revision, which is incorporated within the training:

1. Strategic Environmental Management
2. Leadership
3. Protecting the environment
4. Environmental performance
5. Lifecycle thinking
6. Communication
7. Documentation

SGS is in an ideal position to support you through the transition process by giving you information on ISO 14001:2015 and the changes to the standards as they happen.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This is an unaccredited course and does not meet the transition requirements for certification.
